

Adopted as World Legislative Act #7, at the second session of the Provisional World Parliament, meeting in New Delhi, India, March 1885. Amended at the sixth (2003) and eighth (2004) sessions of the Provisional World Parliament.

World Legislative Act #7

Earth Federation Funding Corporation

Short title:

Funding Corporation

WHEREAS:

The People of Earth are confronted, today, with many extreme and inter-related problems. Whether we survive or perish depends on the effectiveness with which solutions to these problems are devised and carried out during the coming decades.

But effective solutions are impossible so long as nations insist on the continuance of national sovereignty, or on consultative institutions based on national sovereignty, as the framework within which to negotiate and manage those affairs which transcend national boundaries.

Peaceful and effective solutions to the major problems concerned with human survival and progress on Earth, require that an adequate World Federation and non-military democratic world government design and implement those solutions. The framework of solutions now ready for implementation include, among others, the following:

- * The Constitution for the Federation of Earth (Earth Constitution);
- * A series of sessions of a provisional World Parliament, continuing until the Earth Constitution has been ratified by a sufficient number of countries;
- * World Legislative Act #1, which prohibits weapons of mass destruction, including nuclear weapons, and provides for the organization and functioning of a World Disarmament Agency;
- * World Legislative Act #2, which provides for a World Economic Development Organization, including the design for a new world finance and credit system based on potential productive capacity rather than past savings;

* World Legislative Act #6, which provides for an Emergency Earth Rescue Administration, to prevent climatic and environmental catastrophe in time to avert the onset of a new ice age.

* Plans for Earth Rescue Teams, to mobilize the support and participation necessary for ratification and implementation of the Earth Constitution, and of the specific solutions mentioned above, together with solutions to other world problems within the context of world federation and world government.

To obtain the acceptance and implementation of all parts of the comprehensive plan of action outlined above, requires a very massive global campaign. To carry out such a campaign requires adequate funding, in terms of hundreds of millions of equity salaries, far beyond the financial capacity of those persons who have envisioned and initiated this course of action.

THEREFORE:

and costs, plus interest, of private citizens for the achievement of ratification of the Earth Constitution. To further assure the repayment of the loans made to the EFFC, this provisional World Parliament recommends to the next session of the World Constituent Assembly to amend the Earth Constitution (under Article 7, Sec. Sec. 5.7 • Meetings of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee, in order to comprise a quorum, must include at least three of the Parliamentary Directors.

Article 6. • The Parliamentary Directors shall invite up to 300 respected persons from many countries to form a prestigious Advisory Board, and/or Board of Honorary Financial Sponsors, to give credibility, status and stability to the Earth Federation Funding Corporation.

Article 7. • The Earth Federation Funding Corporation shall begin with the following steps:

Sec. 7.1 • Three persons, completely dedicated to the purposes of the Earth Federation Funding Corporation, as defined herein, may incorporate the Earth Federation Funding Corporation.

Sec. 7.2 • Obtain from &2,500 to &5,000 or more [value of about 1985 U.S. $50,000 to $100,000] as start-up money to get the plan for the Earth Federation Funding Corporation into operation.

Sec. 7.3 • Seek the commitments of the first five national governments to support the EFFC with immediate loans (or contributions) totaling &250,000 [value of about 1985 U.S. $5,000,000], together with pledges or subscriptions to increase their loans (or contributions) to a total of &25,000,000 [value of about 1985 U.S. $50,000,000] over a five year period. The total of pledges or subscriptions by the first five may be conditional on obtaining similar support from an additional five national governments.

Sec. 7.4 • As an early priority, make grants to get the work of the Earth Rescue Teams underway, since the Earth Rescue Teams are a the key to getting the total program effectively underway.

Sec. 7.5 • As of the date of adoption of this Act, it is problematic to solicit or receive loans that are to be repaid by a future world government, because national Securities and Exchange regulations might interpret such a plan as fraudulent no matter how clearly the conditions of repayment are described, - since national governments have not yet recognized the world government. At the same time, national governments sell bonds to pay for weapons of mass destruction and related military programs, which are claimed necessary for national security, but which are clearly illegal under world law. National governments promise to repay such bonds, but if the weapons are used in a world war, most people on Earth will be killed, and the bonds will never be repaid. This appears to be quite fraudulent, compared with selling bonds to pay to establish a world government - which, if achieved, can maintain world peace.

To reach the stage of government participation, the EFFC may start by soliciting contributions instead of loans; that is, to ask for priority contributions. These may not be guaranteed by the Central Bank of the EFFC. However, the priority contributions are guaranteed under the Earth Constitution, Article 17, Section F. This Act requires the EFFC, the Central Bank, and any independent accounting firm contracted to audit the books and accounts of the Central Bank, to faithfully account for all contributions made to the EFFC. The World Court may determine that violation of this provision is Unauthorized misappropriation, theft or transfer of world federal property (class 3 felony,. WLA#19),or unauthorized intentional destruction of a world government record (class 4 felony, WLA #19, WLA#25.11.1).
